DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 1 and 2, the phrase "rubber-like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "rubber-like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 2-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Spinello, 5,180,371. Spinello discloses a power drive unit (73) electrically connected to a syringe unit, see column 9, lines 51-55, said syringe unit having a releasably connected carpule holder (V); said carpule holder being releasably connected to a dispensing needle (53), and having a rubber-like plunger seal (V-3), a drive shaft (60) provided with a harpoon

Art Unit: 3763

(63) having a swept-back, barbed point and knife edges along its length and is insertable into said carpule plunger seal (V-3); an electric drive motor, see column 9, lines 51-55; and at least one secondary injection control mechanism to control the longitudinal displacement direction or rate of said drive shaft, and hence, injection rate, see column 9, line 51- column 10, line 10.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 and 6 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
